PREFACE.

To all Boyntons of America :

It is now nineteen months since I commenced my last researches to collect the genealogy and history of the descendants of William and John Boynton, from Yorkshire, England, who settled in the town of Rowley, County of Essex, State of Massachusetts, in the year 1638.

I was born in the east parish of the town of Bradford, a few miles from the "Boynton farms," and the original locations of our first settlers on this continent. I am the seventh generation of William; the five generations between us, of my immediate ancestors, were born and lived within a radius of eight miles from my old home; and my father related to me many unwritten traditions and historical facts, which have been verified and confirmed by the examination of County Court documents, deeds, probate, town, church and family records. My first purpose was to obtain my own complete pedigree, which was with much effort accomplished in a few weeks to my full satisfaction, and I found that my branch of lineal descent from William, formed a base line from which a correct survey of our two great families could be accurately mapped.

I discovered that some traditions were without foundation; inscriptions erroneous; genealogies incorrectly applied; family names confusedly mixed; the very origin of our name subverted; authentic dates falsified or deranged; English and American history disconcerted; the escutcheon of our family pirated; our shield crested with the Harp of Erin, surmounted with rampant lion, and Thistled with the national emblem of Scotland; our motto misused, and much of our true history lost sight of through error and misstatements, which only equal the stray thoughts that wander in the brains of Nonagenarians.

These discoveries aroused in me an ambition that long had slumbered, and I resolved, at the age of three score and eleven, to round up the remainder of life by gathering all records and genealogy of the ten generations of our American ancestors.

On the first day of January, 1883, I commenced my investigations, and my many letters received a cordial response. The more I learned the more I felt the necessity of assistance and counsel.

On the following fourth of July I issued my first circular, calling a convention; thinking I might assemble a few score of our relations, and was joyfully surprised to meet nearly three hundred, whose feelings were in full unison with my own. At that meeting I saw the necessity of a Family Directory, that I might reach our whole fraternity, correspond with them, and they with another.

With a sincere heart I offer you this, my first volume, and my best wishes to the 3,000 kindred named in it.

JOHN FARNHAM BOYNTON.

HIGHLAND PLACE, SYRACUSE, N. Y., August 1st, 1884.

Arms de Boynton.

The above "Coat of Arms" was borne by Sir Matthew Boynton, in 1637. There is much history connecting him with the early Colonial Settlement.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Highland Place, July 4th, 1883.

I, John Farnham Boynton, send Greeting, to all the Boyntons, or Byingtons, on the Continent of North America.

Thirty years ago, I commenced collecting Facts, Dates, History and Genealogy of the Boyntons; but death in my family, and the late war, caused me to suspend my investigations.

Sixteen years later, I commenced my researches anew, my daughter acting as recorder; but in less than one year she died, which caused me to delay any further researches, until the close of 1882. Since then, I have devoted my whole time and attention looking up Records, being assisted by three of the most able Genealogists, Family Historians and Record Searchers the country produces. We have visited many of the largest libraries of New England, New York, Library of Congress, Pension Bureau and War Records of the Union, in search of National, Colonial and Local History, and have found 241 Boyntons named on the Pension Roll.

There has already been collected over 400 Abstracts of Deeds, Bonds, Probate Court and many other valuable records, never before published or made public, of the first five generations of William and John Boynton, the first of this name who located in this country.

Public Records of Massachusetts give 404 Marriages in 37 years; and after extensive migrations of many large families, there were 461 births during the same period of years.

Records of other States have shown an equal amount of increase.

The quantity of material already collected is so voluminous and showing complete pedigrees of so large a number of extensive families—through nine and ten generations—that I feel like making further researches, taking council and advice before issuing the History and Genealogy of the Boyntons of the Western Continent.

Over two Hundred Boyntons have offered the use of their names in a circular to call a Re-Union; but before a complete Re-Union should be held, more Historical researches ought to be made.

Daily requests come in saying, "Call an Assembly," "Have a Convention," "Organize a Society." We have leased the City Hall, of Newburyport, Mass., and issued this circular for a convention, to be held on the 14th of August, 1883; hoping that all Boyntons and descendants of Boyntons in the United States may receive notice, and be represented in person or by letter at this convention.

It is hoped that all Bonytons will bring or send some history or record of their families.

Newburyport is near by Rail and Steamboat to many of the finest Watering Places on the Coast; and the Cemetery, which contains the remains of our Ancestors, is in close proximity.

Trains arrive at, and leave Boston, Portland and intervening towns, at convenient hours for attending the Convention.

Several steamers are ready to make excursions on the Merrimack, along the coast or to neighboring islands of the sea, should parties desire the same.

The CONVENTION is attended with no expenses; ITS BILLS ARE ALL PAID.

In other matters, all parties will act on their own account.

Conveniences, and accommodations, in the city, and to neighboring towns, by rail, are unsurpassed.

On assembling; should it be deemed advisable to extend the Convention another day, we can do so; and have more time for social enjoyment, or excursions of pleasure.

It is our desire that every Boynton should receive this circular, and hope all persons, bearing the name, will assist in giving it an extensive distribution.

Should more be wanted, please address, until August 10th,

JOHN FARNHAM BOYNTON,

Highland Place, Syracuse N. Y.

Between August 10th and 18th, my address will be Post Office, Newburyport, Mass.

SECOND CIRCULAR.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Highland Place, January 1, 1884.

An Epistle of John Farnham Boynton, to all the Boyntons, Boyingtons, and Byingtons of the Western Hemisphere: Greeting. Happy New Year.

It is now one year since I commenced the third time to collect records, and write the History and Genealogy of the Boyntons, and there has not been a day spent in recreation during the last three hundred and sixty-five, but my whole time and attention has been devoted to gathering valuable information connected with our most "ancient and honorable" English and American families.

I am in correspondence with more than eleven hundred descendants of William and John Boynton, from Yorkshire, England, who located in Rowley, Mass., in 1638.

Besides my letters of correspondence, I have issued twenty-two hundred circulars, and distributed seventeen hundred newspapers. We have had our Convention; it was a "satisfactory success." Three or four hundred Boyntons, and relations, were assembled, and were as happy as though all born of one mother. They formed an Association, and are to meet at the same place, on the 14th of next August.

I have traveled over six thousand miles, (Mrs. Boynton accompanying me more than two-thirds the distance, as "assistant secretary,") examining Libraries, local histories, Registry of Deeds, Probate and County Records, Archives of States and National Departments, and have made such extensive addition to my previous collections, that I feel they should be published, and distributed to those who have manifested strong desires in their letters to become more acquainted with their ancestors, and the many families of their descendants, who are now located in distant portions of this country!

All the expenses above named have been borne by myself. The bills are all paid.

A donation of ten dollars was received by me, which I passed over to the Treasurer of the "American, Boynton Association," considering that money not an individual matter.

I have an extensive history of the Boynton family of England, besides charts, tables, or family trees, of the descendants of Bartholomew de Boynton, "of Boynton," who was "Lord of the Manor" in 1067,* as shown by the record of the "English Baronets, with Genealogical tables collected from approved historians, public records, authentic manuscripts, well attested pedigrees, and personal information," which I have lately obtained after expensive and untiring search.

If a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained at three dollars and fifty cents a copy, I will issue an American edition in exact type and form, accompanied with notes by myself. It will occupy about thirty folio pages of the size of this communication. Should I publish more history and records, they will be in the same form, that they may hereafter be conveniently bound in volumes.

* I have seen a note stating that the Boynton family resided in York, England, before the arrival of William, the Conqueror, as early as 1014.

I have the history, letters, and a copy of the handwriting of Sir Matthew Boynton, member in Parliament, from Heyden, Yorkshire, who did more than any other person in supplying New England with cattle, horses, sheep, goats and agricultural implements, between the years 1625 and 1650.

There are several "Seals" and "Coats of Arms," of our families, with modifications, such as would be effected by deeds of valor, and marriages with honorable families. Have you any knowledge of a "Coat of Arms," or other relics, in connection with your American or English ancestors?

I received last week, from the Archives of Massachusetts, the Muster Rolls of Revolutionary Soldiers, in which I find seventy-one Boyntons were in service and received honorable discharges.

If all was published that I have collected from British Chronicles, Local Histories, and American Colonial Records, it would form a volume so expensive that many would feel unable to purchase, yet they are as desirous as myself that these records should be put in print; and the question now is, how shall this be accomplished? A Quarterly or Monthly "Boynton Record and Journal" has been suggested by many. This would be a grand medium of communication for collecting records and genealogy.

It would save much waste of time in correspondence, and assist me in communicating the near relationship of families, and the branch from which they descended, so that they, by a little correspondence among themselves, could render much assistance in proving their pedigrees. It was only a few weeks ago, that one of our name in the South penning an almost accidental sentence gave the maiden name of his grandfather's brother's wife, and as I was in possession of a portion of a Genealogical tree, it enabled me at once to connect a large branch of our family in Georgia and other Southern States with an honorable limb on the Family tree of the original John of Rowley. Such incidents are happening frequently, and had we a journal of communication, I might ask a question of a hundred families, and the person we least suspect, might give the appropriate answer.

I cannot afford to publish them without assistance. I have no desire to make a speculation out of this, but would be willing to give my assistance, if the Boyntons would pay the expense; but before publishing the records, or a genealogy, I think it would be useful and necessary to compile a directory, containing the names of every Boynton, male and female, in this country, from fifteen years of age upwards, with their residences, trade or profession, that I may have the opportunity of addressing them, and they correspond with each other; for I am fully confident if they were acquainted with one another, as well as I am with the whole fraternity, they would have reason to feel proud of the relationship, and after receiving a directory, they would be more fully prepared to judge of the propriety of publishing the records, before the genealogy of the family should be issued, as the records would furnish evidence of the correctness of pedigrees. Should I publish a genealogy, as others have, you would be receiving my assertion without any further proof, unless the records from which I drew my conclusions, were at your disposal, or inspection.

I now ask this favor of the entire Boynton family: Please forward at your earliest convenience, the full name, Post Office address, business, trade or profession of any Boynton, male or female, who is over fifteen years of age, of whom you have any knowledge. I likewise ask the same question of all families whose mothers were Boyntons.

I will enclose with this epistle a blank, in which you can fill out the names and address of persons for the directory, as above named. With this is added another blank, in which you can register, as subscribers, for the directory, and the number of copies desired, and then return the same to me.

Should a sufficient number of subscribers be obtained, I shall issue it, as soon as I receive returns from this communication.

* A large number of persons corresponding with me, have asked for my photograph, and quite a number have sent me theirs, requesting an exchange. I should be most happy to comply with their request, but it would involve me in too great expense, as I would have to match my solitary face with little less than five thousand of my better looking kinsmen. As a remedy I propose this: I will publish the directory for two dollars and fifty cents, containing one of Bierstadt's best photo prints of myself, taken for the occasion. If a sufficiently large subscription could be obtained, the directory could be afforded at a less price; but should the receipts more than cover the expense of publication, the profits will be used in publishing other papers that will interest our family.

Should any business parties desire displayed advertisements on the fly leaves of the directory, a quarter of a page will be furnished for five dollars, and will receive a notice in some newspaper which has a circulation of sixty thousand and a copy of the paper forwarded to them.

It is my desire every Boynton should receive this communication. Additional copies will be furnished on application.

A list of the subscribers' names will be published, and the number of copies taken by each. Hoping to meet you all at the "American, Boynton Association," in Newburyport, Mass., on the 14th of August next, where we may remain THREE DAYS IN BUSINESS, cultivating family relations, and striving to make the others happy, "I rest."

I am with much respect, your humble servant, and obedient kinsman,

Seventh generation of William,

Sincerely,

JOHN FARNHAM BOYNTON.

ADDENDA.

As many new families are being discovered, I fear some have not received the following, in previous letters or circulars; therefore I append it to this epistle.

On the 4th of July last, I issued circulars calling a Convention at Newburyport, on the 14th of August. An organization was effected. President, Vice-President, Secretaries and Treasurer elected. Imperfect proceedings were published in the Newburyport Herald, and other papers, and many hundred copies distributed. Numerous correspondents have requested me to furnish papers and documents of that date, which I would willingly do if the supply had not long since been exhausted.

Those who have not, will please furnish me, if possible, the names of their Father, Grandfather and Great-Grandfather, and the Towns and States where they lived, and held deeds of land. Also the names of their wives before they were married.

I desire the names of all the members of your family, and Boynton connections, with dates of Birth, Marriage or Death.

Spell all names in full, middle names especially, and discover a new Boynton if you can.

J. F. B.

Three thousand copies of the above Epistle have been circulated, and several thousand Boyntons have responded. Much genealogy has been obtained, and I here present you with the address of every living Boynton over fifteen years of age, whose name I have been able to discover. It is probable more names will be forwarded after this Directory goes to press; if so, they will be published in an addenda at the close of the volume.

I sincerely hope all Boyntons will re-read these letters, and continue their efforts to collect names and forward the same to me, as I am desirous each one of our numerous family should be represented at our Re-Unions, and their history be recorded with ours.

I have issued 8,000 letters and circulars.

More than 150,000 newspapers with notices have been distributed.

2,500 letters have been written, received and answered.

From these letters I have selected the names found in this Directory; they have been recorded as furnished: Boyington, Byington, &c.; yet I have proof that the original name was Boyn-ton, as I have traced by authentic records, a large number of these families to our original American ancestors, William and John Boynton, of Rowley, Mass.

Our name has several times been adopted where there was no blood relation.

Four families of Boyntons are found who emigrated from England since 1840.

My intention has been to record the names of all Boyntons who are fifteen years of age; there may be a few exceptions. I invite corrections and criticisms.

BOYNTON CONVENTION, 1883.

In compliance with my presumptuous circular of July²⁴th, 1883, I had the pleasure of meeting about three hundred Boyntons and their relations at City Hall, Newburyport, Mass., August 14th.

In this effort I had been unassisted and unaided ; I expected to meet fifty or sixty persons of our name, and arrange for future action, but was rejoiced to find myself in the midst of a large assembly of generous and warm hearted relations, all anxious to know more of their predecessors, and have a reunion of our numerous and scattered families.

After an hour or two spent in mutual congratulations, talking over family histories, registering their names, &c., I called the multitude to order, and stated the object of the gathering, saying it was a convention of Boyntons, and not of mine. That I had assumed to become historian of the Boynton Family, and was desirous of collecting all our records and genealogy, that they might be published, the family become acquainted with its ancient and honorable position, and its perfect lineal descent.

Previously to this meeting I had corresponded with Major Edward C. Boynton, of Newburgh, N. Y., Professor at West Point, asking him to be present, and act as presiding officer of the day. He expressed a willingness to do anything in his power to further our cause. He was called to the chair by acclamation of our assembly, and made President.

At this point of our proceedings there were a few minutes of leisure time, when Mrs. Mary E. Hobbs, of Madison, N. H., offered and read the following :—

POEM.

We have heard the distant summons,
 We have risen at the call,
 And have gathered at your bidding
 To this spacious City hall.
 No light whim has brought us hither,
 On no idle quest we come
 Round the mountain, o'er the river,
 Through the city's busy hum ;
 But a name of sacred seeming
 Oft the heart and soul will sway,
 And our Boynton blood has quickened
 To respond to you to-day.
 We have heard the roll-call sounded
 Where our Eastern fleets unfold,
 And the echo has responded
 From the Western gates of gold.
 From our Northern towns and cities,
 From her mountains' cool arcades,
 From our Southern vales and villas,
 From her orange groves and glades,
 Comes the word that makes us kindred—
 Children of a noble blood ;
 And we bless the tie that binds us
 To the Boynton brotherhood !
 'Tis a word I love to utter,
 'Tis a name I love to hear,
 Though its syllables are softened
 Sometimes by a starting tear ;
 'Twas a word I learned to falter
 At a loving grandsire's knee,
 And a name I learned to honor
 From my earliest memory.
 'Twas the name my saintly mother,
 In her golden girlhood bore,
 And her eldest son received it
 With the grace her spirit wore.
 I have left my loved ones sleeping
 In the Empire State afar ;
 But the past is in our keeping,
 And its portals oft ajar.

Now again I hear the story,
 As my memory goes back,
 How my grandsire strolled at evening
 By the limpid Merrimac ;
 And with grandmother beside him—
 When their lives and loves were young—
 How the golden moonbeams glistened,
 How the silver ripples sung.
 Hereabouts he built his cottage,
 Hereabouts his home began ;
 With the boy-heart in the bosom
 Of the sober-seeming man.
 But the western breezes beckoned,
 And our old ancestral tree
 Never sent a nobler scion
 To the waiting wilds than he.
 Thus to me he has the seeming,
 And your grand-sires seem the same ;
 For what finger finds a stigma
 Resting on the Boynton name ?
 How they battled for their country,
 How they struggled long ago,
 How they lived and died, the annals
 Of our worthy Doctor show.
 He the cream of life is giving
 To this laudable pursuit,
 Threading backward through the ages
 For the old ancestral root ;
 Delving over dusty tablets,
 Toiling through historic tomes,
 Tracing line and link primeval,
 Even to our very homes.
 We've assembled here to aid him,
 To encourage and to cheer ;
 And to give a gladsome greeting
 To our kindred far and near.
 We have gathered here to help him,
 That our old ancestral tree
 Shall reach down full-twigg'd and perfect
 To remote posterity.

A vote of thanks was passed for the poem, and a copy requested for publication.

After this appropriate offering, we again proceeded with business.

Herbert H. Boynton, of the Document Rooms State House, Boston, Mass., was chosen Vice-President.

C. Whitman Boynton, of Woodbridge, N. J., Treasurer.

John Farnham Boynton, of Syracuse, N. Y., Secretary.

Mrs. Caroline H. Boynton, of Syracuse, N. Y., Assistant Secretary.

The above named officers were then chosen an Executive Committee.

The constitution of the "American, Boynton Association," was presented by myself, accepted by acclamation, and its publication ordered. Time being limited, other officers, named in the constitution were not elected, and our convention was adjourned "to meet again in this Hall on the 14th of August, 1884."

As Secretary of the "American, Boynton Association," I have issued over 4,000 circulars for the Boyntons to re-assemble on the 14th of this month.

Hoping to grasp the hands of all my correspondents, and many with whom I have had no acquaintance,

I am with much respect,

Yours Sincerely,

JOHN FARNHAM BOYNTON.

August 1st, 1884.

The following letter from one of our most aged Patriarchs, ninety-two years of age, was received too late to be read in convention. It is with much pleasure and gratification I insert it here. It speaks for itself:—

A WORD FROM OUR AGED PATRIARCH.

NEW LISBON, WIS., August 12, 1883.

J. F. Boynton, Esq. :—

DEAR SIR—It would be a great pleasure for me to meet you in convention, with its members, to exchange salutations; and although my cane is now my constant companion, I could lean upon its head and greet you with a hearty laugh. I should discern in your countenance, courage, patriotism, energy, enterprise, hospitality, and in short, a jolly good natured set of Ladies and Gentlemen. I should behold a tough, hardy race, with more common sense than style; a race proud to help make its nation a nation of progress in Art, Science and Literature; proud of its charitable and benevolent institutions; its institutions of Learning and Academys of Science. A Religious race, with once and awhile a skeptic, but all believe the injunction, to “increase, multiply, and replenish the earth.”

As I have ascended the ladder of life, I have found many unable to stand trials and afflictions; sit down in despair at a little adversity; wearing a look of gloom and disappointment: But their names were not Boynton.

I am near the top round of life's ladder; more than four score and ten; I can see nearly across the river; and I am going to stop with you as long as possible, but when I go, I shall go with a will.

I would leave the convention my cane, but I know a convention of Boyntons will stand alone.

Very Respectfully Yours,

ABEL BOYNTON.

A WORD FROM THE SOUTH.

MACON, Ga., August 8, 1883.

Mr. John F. Boynton and others assembled in convention of the Boynton Family at Newburyport, Mass:—

GENTLEMEN—It is with much regret that I am compelled to meet you by letter, and not in person.

The purposes of your convention are such as are well calculated to stir the emotions of our hearts to their lowest depths; to arouse all our dearest, noblest, holiest feelings; to inspire us, who remain the present representatives of our ancient house, with veneration for the past and hope for the future.

When we recollect that our lineage, unbroken by the waves of the centuries that have rolled by—our house not submerged or overwhelmed by the mists of more than a thousand years—that our lineage, and our house, has seen kingdoms rise and fall; dynasties reign and disappear; and even amid the gloom of the “dark ages,” was illustrated by many worthy representatives, and to-day, amid the unsurpassed but still progressive enlightenment of the nineteenth century, can assemble from the East and from the West, from the North and from the South, so many, who may well be called worthy sons of worthy sires, surely we may be pardoned if we repeat that we cling to the past with our deepest veneration, and look to the future with our brightest hopes.

Could our ancestors, during the eventful periods through which so many of them were called to pass, when threatened by calamity, or almost betrayed by prosperity, which at times all but tarnished the escutcheon of their noble line, have foreseen the future prosperity of their descendants, yea even this convention, which so well marks an era in their history—the Era of Reunions—would it not have inspired them, if possible, with more hatred of wrong, more devotion to the right? Let it so inspire us, who remain their present representatives.

Let the knowledge of our noble ancestry so opportunely increased by the self sacrificing and untiring efforts of our worthily honored kinsman, John Farnham Boynton, determine each heart of this, and every succeeding generation, to transmit to our posterity the escutcheon and the name of Boynton, as untarnished and unsullied, as we received them from those gone before us, until they become the watchwords of the brave, the gentle, and the true.

Gentlemen, wishing you success in the attainment of all your hopes, I remain as ever,

Your kinsman,

SIDNEY HOLLIS BOYNTON.

SECTION 1. As the natural object of this Association will be greatly promoted by social intercourse among its members, the Board of Officers may, whenever in their judgment it is deemed expedient, appoint a time and place for the holding of an Assembly; a two-thirds vote shall be necessary for such action; but a general meeting of the "American, Boynton Association" shall be called once in five years, the first having been August 14th, 1883, at Newburyport, Mass. The Board shall have power to fix any other day in August for such Convention.

§ 3. All business meetings of the Association shall be held at such hour and place as the President, or person acting as President for the time being, shall appoint.

§ 4. A quorum for the dispatch of business, except in cases where a larger number may be required for any special act by any article of the Constitution, shall consist of such number of members as shall be prescribed by the By-Laws, but any number of members present at the time appointed for a stated meeting may, from time to time, adjourn such stated meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

ARTICLE VII.

ON THE MODE OF ALTERING THE CONSTITUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION.

SECTION I. No alteration, repeal or amendment of any part of this Constitution shall take place unless the proposition for such alteration, repeal or amendment shall have been made at a previous stated meeting; and such proposition shall not take effect unless there are present at least seventy-five members, three-fourths of whom shall vote in the affirmative, and the votes on such questions shall be recorded by the Secretary, if required by five members present.

§ 2. The By-Laws of this Association may be altered, repealed or amended, either at a stated meeting or a special meeting, when called for the object of making such alteration, such object being expressed in the notice of said special meeting. The proposition for such alteration, repeal or amendment must have been made at previous meeting.

BY-LAWS.

SECTION 1. The business meetings of the Association shall be held on the date of the Assembly, and immediately before the exercises commence, or they shall be held in November in each year upon such day as fixed by the Board of Officers.

§ 2. The Secretary shall give at least ten days notice, through the mails, to all members, of the time and place of all meetings, whether special or stated, and shall issue all invitations wherever Assemblies may be called by the Board of Officers.

§ 3. At special meetings, the consent of two-thirds of the members present shall be necessary to constitute a vote.
